

Unit 1 Pre A1 Starters

Learning objectives

Develop language skills and exam techniques to prepare students for the Cambridge English: Pre A1 Starters exam Listening Part 1, Speaking Part 4, Reading and Writing Parts 1 and 3

Familiarize students with the style of questions for this exam

Language

Review vocabulary: dictionary, pencil case, water bottle, lunch box, glue stick, folder, scissors, pencil sharpener

Review grammar: Have you got a ...? Yes, I have. / No I haven't.; Has he / she got a ...? Yes, he has. / No, he hasn't.; We've got our ... They've got their ...

Starting the lesson (optional)

- Play What have you got? (see Ideas bank in the Teacher's Guide) to review the school things vocabulary.

Listening and Speaking

1 Listen and draw lines. 001

- Read the instruction with the students and make sure that they understand what they need to do.
- Focus their attention on the picture and ask them questions to encourage them to think about what they can see, e.g. Where are the children? What has girl c got?
- Play the first section of the audio and look at the example answer together as a class.
- Play the audio once through for students to listen and match the names with the people in the picture. Make sure that they understand that there is one name which they do not need to match.
- Play the audio again for students to check their answers. Then check answers as a class.

Audio transcript

- 1 Girl Look at this photo. This is my class.
Man Who's that girl? She's got a pencil case and a dictionary.
Girl That's Jasmine. She likes English lessons.
Man Do you like them, too?
Girl Yes, but I like sports lessons more.
- 2 Man That boy likes sports lessons. He's got a tracksuit.
Girl Yes, it's blue and red. His name's Lucas.
Man Has he got a football?
Girl No, he's got trainers and a red and blue tracksuit. He hasn't got football boots today.
Man Oh, I see.

- 3 Girl Can you see Meg?

ANSWERS

Jasmine, c Lucas, b Meg, e Tom, f
 Esme, d Alex, g (Harry is a distractor)

2 Ask and answer about your school things.

- Explain to students that in this part of the exam the examiner will ask them questions about their own life. Often, they will need to answer questions about their things, so it's good to practise asking and answering questions about this.
- Read the instruction with the students and make sure that they understand what they need to do.
- Students do the speaking activity in pairs. Walk around the class, helping where necessary.

Mixed ability

Support weaker students by practising the speaking activity as a class before students do the activity in pairs. Stretch stronger students by asking them to add more information and more details in their answer, e.g. My pencil case is blue and green.

Reading and Writing

3 Look and read. Put a tick or cross in the box.

- Read the instruction with the students and make sure that they understand what they need to do.
- Do the example question together as a class. Point to the first picture and ask What's this? Is it a folder? (Yes, it is.) Say Yes. This is a folder. Indicate the example tick in the box. Make sure that students understand that they put a tick in the box if the statement is correct, and they put a cross in the box if the statement is incorrect.
- Students complete the activity on their own or in pairs.

ANSWERS

1 ✓ 2 X 3 ✓ 4 ✓ 5 X 6 ✓

4 Look at the pictures. Look at the letters. Write the words.

- Read the instruction with the students and make sure that they understand what they need to do.
- Do the example question together as a class. Point to the first picture and ask What's this? (trainers) Demonstrate how students need to put the letters in order to make the words.
- Students complete the activity on their own or in pairs.

ANSWERS

1 shorts 2 trainers 3 sports bag 4 football shirt

Mixed ability

Stick some more flashcards on the board. Ask fast finishers to create their own anagrams and swap them with another student to complete.

Unit 2 Pre A1 Starters

Learning objectives

Develop language skills and exam techniques to prepare students for the Cambridge English: Pre A1 Starters exam Listening Part 3, Speaking Part 3, Reading and Writing Parts 1 and 4

Familiarize students with the style of questions for this exam

Language

Review vocabulary: cereal, chips, rice, chicken, meatballs, biscuits, yoghurt, sandwiches

Review grammar: I have ... for breakfast. Do you have ... for breakfast? Yes, I do. / No, I don't. Do you like ... ? Yes, I do. / No, I don't.

Starting the lesson (optional)

- Play What's missing? (see Ideas bank in the Teacher's Guide) to review the food vocabulary.

Listening and Speaking

1 Listen and tick the box. 🎧 002

- Read the instruction with the students and make sure that they understand what they need to do.
- Do the first question together with the class as an example. Point to the first picture and ask What's this? Is it sandwiches? (No, it isn't.) Establish what each of the pictures shows.
- Play the first section of the audio. Ask the question Which is Jack's favourite meal? Establish that the answer is c. Make sure that students understand that they put a tick in the box which shows the correct picture.
- Ask students to read through the questions and look at the pictures before they listen so that they know what information they need to focus on.
- Play the audio once through for students to listen and tick the correct box.
- Play the audio again for students to check their answers. Then check answers as a class.

Audio transcript

2 Look at the pictures in 1. Point. Then ask and answer.

- Read the instruction with the students and make sure that they understand what they need to do.
- Read the example answer with the class. Then demonstrate the activity. Point to one of the pictures and ask What's this? Then ask a follow up question, e.g. Do you eat (cereal) for (breakfast)?
- Students work in pairs to complete the speaking activity. Walk around the class, helping where necessary.

Mixed ability

Support weaker students by practising the speaking activity as a class before students do the activity in pairs. Stretch stronger students by asking them to give more detail in their answers.

Reading and Writing

3 Look and read. Put a tick or cross in the box.

- Read the instruction with the students and make sure that they understand what they need to do. Ask a stronger student to explain the task in their own words.
- Do the first question together with the class as an example. Point to the first picture and ask What's this? Is it juice? (No, it isn't.) Say No. This isn't juice. This is yogurt. Indicate that students need to put a cross in the box. Make sure that students understand that they put a tick in the box if the statement is correct, and they put a cross in the box if the statement is incorrect.
- Students complete the activity on their own or in pairs.

ANSWERS

1 X 2 ✓ 3 ✓ 4 X 5 ✓ 6 X

4 Read this. Choose a word from the box. Write the correct word next to numbers 1–5.

- Read the instruction with the students and make sure that they understand what they need to do.
- Ask students to read the text all the way through first, for general understanding.
- Focus students' attention on the pictures and ask What's this? Make sure that students understand the picture shows the meaning of each word.
- Answer the first question with the class as an example. Demonstrate that students need to choose one of the words from the box which will complete the sentence. Make sure that students are aware that they don't need to use all of the words in the box.
- Students complete the reading and writing activity by choosing the correct answers and writing them in the text.

ANSWERS

1 kitchen 2 peppers 3 lemonade
4 chicken 5 strawberries

Mixed ability

Students can work in pairs to complete the activity. It is sometimes useful to partner weaker and stronger students to work together.

Unit 3 Pre A1 Starters

Learning objectives

Develop language skills and exam techniques to prepare students for the Cambridge English: Pre A1 Starters exam Listening Part 2, Speaking Part 2, Reading and Writing Part 4

Familiarize students with the style of questions for this exam

Language

Review vocabulary: giraffe, zebra, elephant, monkey, hippo, dolphin, tiger, penguin

Review grammar: Present simple (affirmative, negative and question form)

Starting the lesson (optional)

- Play Can you remember? (see Ideas bank in the Teacher's Guide) to review the wild animals vocabulary.

Listening and Speaking

1 Listen and write a name or a number. 003

- Read the instruction with the students and make sure that they understand what they need to do. Ask a stronger student to explain the task in their own words.
- Focus students' attention on the picture and ask What can you see in the picture? (a class project about wild animals)
- Ask students to read through the questions before they listen so that they know what information they need to focus on.
- Play the audio once through for students to listen and write the missing words.
- Play the audio again for students to check their answers. Then check answers as a class.

Mixed ability

With weaker students, pause after each section of the audio and answer the question together as a class.

Audio transcript

2 Look at the picture. Tell your partner about the animals.

- Focus students' attention on the picture and ask them questions about what they can see, e.g. Where is it? What animals can you see?
- Read the instruction with the students and make sure that they understand what they need to do. Then read the model questions and answers with the class.
- Students do the speaking activity in pairs. Walk around the class, helping where necessary.

Mixed ability

Support weaker students by practising the speaking activity as a class before students do the activity in pairs. Stretch stronger students by asking them to add more detail to their answers.

Reading and Writing

3 Read this. Choose a word from the box. Write the correct word next to numbers 1–5.

- Read the instruction with the students and make sure that they understand what they need to do. Ask a stronger student to explain the task in their own words.
- Ask students to look at the pictures and read the text all the way through first, to prepare for the task. Make sure that students remember that they don't need to use all of the words in the box.
- Students complete the reading and writing activity by choosing the correct answers and writing them in the text.

ANSWERS

1 legs 2 brown 3 leaves 4 run 5 sleep

Mixed ability

With weaker students, answer the first question together with the class as an example. Demonstrate that students need to choose one of the words from the box which will complete the sentence. Make sure that students are aware that they don't need to use all of the words in the box.

4 Draw an animal and write about it.

- Read the instruction with the students and make sure that they understand what they need to do.
- Students complete the reading and writing activity by drawing an animal and completing the sentences.

ANSWERS

Students' own answers

Mixed ability

Stronger students can write their own sentences about the animal. As this activity isn't direct practice for the Cambridge exam, you can skip it with weaker students, or if you are short of time.

Mixed ability

With weaker students, pause after each section of the audio and answer the question together as a class.

2 Ask and answer about your day.

- Explain to students that in this part of the exam the examiner will ask them questions about their own life. Often, they will need to answer questions about their daily routine, so it's a good idea to practise asking and answering questions about this topic.
- Read the instruction and the model question and answer with the class. Make sure that they understand what they need to do. Explain that they can use the words in the box to make their questions.
- Students do the speaking activity in pairs. Walk around the class, helping where necessary.

Mixed ability

Support weaker students by practising the speaking activity as a class before students do the activity in pairs. Stretch stronger students by asking them to think of more questions.

Reading and Writing

3 Look and read. Put a tick or cross in the box.

- Read the instruction with the students and make sure that they understand what they need to do. Ask a stronger student to explain the task in their own words.
- Do the first question together with the class as an example. Point to the first picture and ask What's this? Is it a farmer? (Yes, it is.) Say Yes. This is a farmer. Indicate that students need to put a tick in the box. Make sure that students understand that they put a tick in the box if the statement is correct, and they put a cross in the box if the statement is incorrect.
- Students complete the activity on their own or in pairs.

ANSWERS

1 ✓ 2 ✗ 3 ✗ 4 ✓

4 Read this. Choose a word from the box. Write the correct word next to numbers 1–5.

- Read the instruction with the students and make sure that they understand what they need to do. Ask a stronger student to explain the task in their own words.
- Ask students to look at the pictures and read the text all the way through first, to prepare for the task. Make sure that students remember that they don't need to use all of the words in the box.
- Students complete the reading and writing activity by choosing the correct answers and writing them in the text.

ANSWERS

1 dentist 2 shower 3 breakfast 4 taxi driver 5 bed

Mixed ability

With weaker students, answer the first question together with the class as an example. Demonstrate that students need to choose one of the words from the box which will complete the sentence. Make sure that students are aware that they don't need to use all of the words in the box.
